

West Virginia

"Take me home"

Jim and Aleda Littlefield

April 2019

Pennsylvania
Trolley Museum

Washington, PA

Note: this old
SEPTA trolley is
one I could have ridden when
visiting my cousins in Havertown.
However, this has MEDIA as its destination. I would have taken the Ardmore trolley
from 69th St.
and gotten off
at Manoa Rd.
and walked the
two blocks to their house.

West Virginia

Note the trolley fares.

It would likely have been 25cents in my day. I would take the “el” from 45th and Market to the 69th Street terminal, then went through the terminal to the trolley platform.

Pa. Trolley Museum

Aleda is certainly familiar with how to make a call with the old crank phones.

A goat

a

a

a

a

A visit to Greenbriar Resort, near, White Sulfur Springs, WV.

The current Greenbriar was built in 1913 by the Chesapeake and Ohio R.E. It is now privately owned.

The Greenbrier is also the site of a massive underground bunker that was meant to serve as an emergency shelter for the United States Congress during the Cold War.

A visit with Rene Richmond.

Aleda and Rene outside the front entrance.

The Greenbriar is white.

Indoor pool at the Greenbriar.

Sparse swimmers on
the day we visited

Greenbriar horse and buggy

A boy and his mule and Aleda and a fountain

Western Maryland
Railway Station,
13 Canal St.,
Cumberland, MD

a

a

a

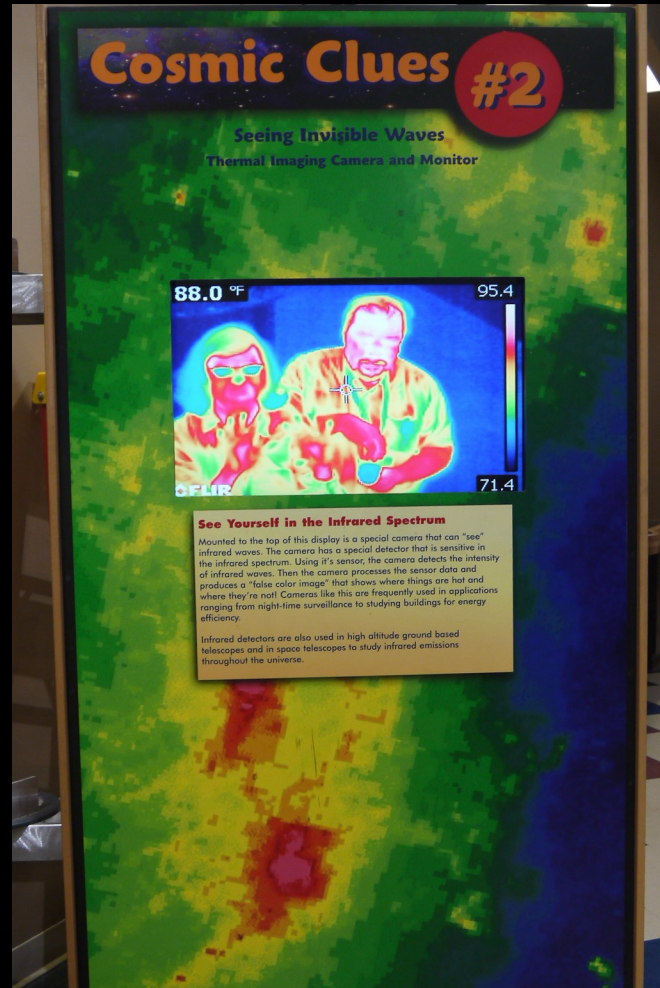

a

Greenbank WV radiotelescope

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

a

